29th Interdisciplinary Information Management Talks

on

“Digital Transformation and Economy in a Pandemic Era“

held in Kutná Hora, Czech Republic

September 1st – 3rd, 2021 (Wed-Fri)

During the 28 years of their history, IDIMT conferences have established themselves as a truly interdisciplinary and international forum for the exchange of concepts, visions and experience in the area of complex and/or software intensive systems, their impact, their engineering, management and application based on management of information and knowledge, systemic thinking, business engineering, and related topics. The increasing impact of digital transformation of all aspect of economy and personal life due to digital information as a vital resource requires the consideration of synergies in an interdisciplinary and holistic cooperation of numerous disciplines such as business management, business and process innovation, systems engineering, information engineering, sociology, human factors, and education. In the current Corona pandemic, we will offer special considerations of the resulting issues.

IDIMT involves a multi-national, multidisciplinary audience in discussing these up-to-date and evolving topics and issues.

The proceedings are published in the “Informatik” series of the “Universitätsverlag Rudolf Trauner, Linz, Austria” with an ISBN-number, available before the conference opens.
